

TABLE OF CONTENTS

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS	VII
PREFACE	IX
CHAPTER 1
The evolution of the international organisations and the United Nations	1
1.1. The evolution of the international organisations and the creation of the United Nations, p. 1 – 1.2. The United Nations and its reform process, p. 5 – Bibliography, p. 13
CHAPTER 2
Sustainable development and the UN: the 2030 Agenda	15
2.1. The long path towards the 2030 Agenda, p. 15 – 2.2. The five main fundamental targets (Ps) of the 2030 Agenda, p. 23 – 2.3. The Localisation of the SDGs, p. 25 – 2.4. The SDGs and the current implementation status of the 2030 Agenda, p. 30 – Bibliography, p. 48
CHAPTER 3
Origins and evolution of WIPO	51
Introduction, p. 51 – 3.1. The Paris Convention of 1883, p. 55 – 3.2. The Berne Convention, p. 59 – 3.3. The Madrid Agreement of 1891, p. 63 – 3.4. From BIRPI (1893) to WIPO (1970), p. 66 – 3.5. PCT System of 1978, p. 69 – 3.6. WIPO Arbitration and Mediation Centre and WIPO Academy, p. 71 – 3.7. WIPO Development Agenda, p. 73 – Other notable initiatives, p. 74 – 3.8. WIPO today, p. 75 – Conclusions, p. 76 – Bibliography, p. 77

CHAPTER 4

The development of international trade law

79

Introduction: What is international trade law?, p. 79 – The traditional approach: determination of jurisdiction and applicable law, execution of the sentence, p. 81 – International conventions on jurisdiction, p. 81 – The UN contribution to international trade law, p. 82 – Uses, practices and customs of international trade, p. 83 – Role of party autonomy, p. 83 – Standardization of substantive law: a new path, p. 83 – Lex mercatoria (today mercantile law or transnational law), p. 84 – Unidroit Principles, p. 85 – 4.1. Legislative history of the Model Law on International Commercial Arbitration, p. 86 – A historical overview of International trade law and arbitration, p. 86 – UNCITRAL historical overview, p. 88 – Model Law historical overview, p. 89 – 4.2. 1985 Model Law provisions, p. 89 – Procedural regime for international commercial arbitration, p. 90 – Substantive and territorial scope of application, p. 90 – Trend in favour limiting court involvement in international commercial arbitration, p. 90 – Arbitration Agreement, p. 91 – Composition of arbitral tribunal, p. 91 – Jurisdiction of arbitral tribunal, p. 92 – Conduct of arbitral proceedings, p. 92 – Making of award and termination of proceedings: rules applicable to substance of dispute, p. 93 – Recourse against award, p. 94 – Application for setting aside as exclusive recourse, p. 94 – Recognition and enforcement of awards, p. 94 – 4.3. The role of UNCITRAL, p. 94 – Forms of intervention, p. 96 – Coordination activity, p. 97 – Case Law on UNCITRAL Texts (CLOUT), p. 97 – Sustainable Development Goals, p. 98 – 4.4. 2006 Amendments to the Model Law, p. 99 – Article 1.2, p. 99 – Article 2 A, p. 99 – Article 7, p. 99 – Chapter IV A, p. 100 – Article 35.2, p. 101 – 4.5. Trade and Development, p. 101 – 4.6. Global Trade Relations, p. 102 – WTO, p. 102 – 4.7. European Trade Relations, p. 104 – EU, p. 104 – 4.8. Disparities in Development, p. 105 – WBG, p. 105 – Conclusions, p. 107 – Bibliography, p. 109