

INDEX

	pag.
Introduction	XI
Chapter 1
THE NECESSITY	1
1. Background	1
2. Fundamentals of islamic economy and finance	3
2.1. History and development of the Islamic banking system	4
2.2. System evolutionary stages	5
3. Rules and concepts of islamic law in economic and financial activity	7
3.1. The sources of Islamic economic law	8
3.2. The principles of Islamic contract law: notes	9
3.3. Financial and banking legislation	10
Chapter 2
DEMAND	13
1. The spread of islamic finance and islamic banks in the world	13
1.1. Geographical expansion	14
1.2. Numerical aspects of the development of financial institutions in Islamic countries	16
1.3. Situation of the Islamic banking system: the case of Iran, Sudan, Bahrain	20
1.4. The spread of Islamic banks in Europe and the rest of the world	23
1.5. Islamic finance in the United Kingdom (UK)	25
1.5.1. The main operators and services offered	27
1.5.2. A few examples of contracts	28
1.5.3. The legislation	29
1.6. Islamic finance in France	30
1.6.1. Main operators and services	32

	pag.
1.6.2. Some examples of contracts	33
1.6.3. Current legislation	33
1.7. Islamic finance in Germany	35
1.7.1. Main operators and services	36
1.7.2. Some examples of contracts	37
1.7.3. Sukuk legislation	38
1.8. Islamic finance in Spain	39
1.9. Islamic finance in Luxembourg	40
1.9.1. Main operators and services	42
1.9.2. Best Practices for Islamic funds	42
1.9.3. Current legislation	43
2. Islamic finance in Italy	43
2.1. Historical background and population	43
2.2. Possibility for Italian SMEs	47
2.2.1. Background of the analysis	47
2.2.2. Sharia-compliant indices	52
2.2.3. Hypothesis	54
2.2.4. Findings	55
2.2.5. Conclusion	60
2.3. A possible outlook for Italy	61
2.4. Development perspectives of Islamic finance in Italy	63
2.4.1. The training projects	66
2.4.2. Development project of retail services	67
2.4.3. Development project of an investment fund for SME's financed by Islamic investors	68
2.5. Development project using crowdfunding	70
2.5.1. Background	72
2.5.2. Conclusion	80
2.6. Possible modifications in the Italian law	85
2.6.1. Direct taxes	85
2.6.2. Indirect taxes	90

Chapter 3

THE SECTOR	93
1. The infrastructure of the islamic financial system	93
1.1. The first infrastructure bodies: IDB e IAIB	94
1.2. AAOIFI's role	95
1.3. Functions and aims of the IFSB	97
1.4. IIFM characteristics	100
1.5. Others financial institutions	101

	pag.
1.5.1. Liquidity Management Centre (LMC)	101
1.5.2. International Islamic Rating Agency (IIRA)	102
1.5.3. General Council for Islamic Banks and Financial Institutions (CIBAFI)	102
 Chapter 4
CHARACTERISTICS AND PECULIARITIES OF ISLAMIC BANKS	103
1. Concepts and principles underlying Islamic banking activity and the supply of financial products	103
2. Islamic banks model	107
2.1. Elements that differentiate the Islamic bank from the traditional bank	109
2.2. Governance	113
 Chapter 5
ISLAMIC CONTRACTS FOR THE BANKING SYSTEM	119
1. Introduction	119
2. Participatory contract: mudaraba	122
2.1. Mudaraba: how it works	123
2.2. Mudaraba: nature of the capital, possible capital contribution by the entrepreneur or employment by the bank	124
2.3. Mudaraba: profit and loss sharing (PLS)	124
3. Participative contracts: Musharaka	127
3.1. Musharaka: how it works	127
3.2. Musharaka: Profit and loss sharing	129
3.3. Musharaka: Expiry of the contract and other contractual aspects	130
3.4. The comparison between musharaka and mudaraba contracts	131
4. Non-participatory contracts: murabaha and salam usable for working capital financing	133
4.1. Legal validity of Sharia law compliance	134
4.2. Using the Murabaha	135
5. Salam contract	135
5.1. Legal aspect of Sharia law compliance	137
5.2. Benefits of Salam	138
5.3. Salam: financial use	138
6. Non-participatory contracts: Ijara and Istisna usable for the financing of fixed assets	139
6.1. Differences between Ijara and traditional leasing	140

	pag.
6.2. Sectors of use of the Ijara contract	141
7. Istisna's contract	141
7.1. The contract	143
8. Dissemination of the use of the main contracts	143
Chapter 6
ISLAMIC BANK SERVICES	145
1. Capital raising	146
1.1. Saving accounts	147
1.2. Current account deposit	149
1.3. Fixed-term account	151
1.4. Investment account	151
2. Contracts for savings and current account deposits	151
2.1. Qard account	151
2.2. Wadia account	153
2.3. Wadia and Qard compared	154
3. Contracts underlying fixed-time deposits and investment accounts	156
3.1. Fixed-time deposit	156
3.2. Investment account Mudaraba	156
3.3. Commodity Murabaha (Tawarruq)	160
3.4. Unrestricted Wakala investment account	164
3.5. Mudaraba investment account	166
4. Investment accounts	168
4.1. Limited investment account in the form of Wakala	168
4.2. Special investment account in the form of Mudaraba	168
5. Islamic bank loans	169
6. Real estate financing	170
6.1. Real estate financing using Musharaka Mutanaqisa	171
6.2. Default case in musharaka's contract	174
6.3. Real estate financing using Bai Murabaha	176
6.4. Real estate financing using Ijara	178
6.5. Real estate financing under construction – Istisna parallel	180
6.6. Real estate financing using Tawarruq	183
7. Financing the car and the purchase of durable goods	184
7.1. Al-Ijara Thumma Al-Bay' (AITAB) financing	185
8. Personal financing	188
8.1. Inah personal financing	188
8.2. Tawarruq personal financing	189
8.3. Rahn personal financing	191
9. Islamic credit cards	192

	pag.
9.1. Islamic credit card based on Inah	192
9.2. Islamic credit card based on Ujrah	193
9.3. Islamic credit card based on Tawarruq	194
10. Corporate financing	195
10.1. Definition of Murabaha to the purchase order	196
10.2. Murabaha to the purchase order – Modus Operandi	196
10.3. Acquisition through Ijara’s contract	197
10.4. Ijara Muntahyah Bittamlik definition	198
10.5. Ijara Muntahiya Bittamlik – Modus Operandi	199
11. Working capital financing	199
11.1. Credit line / Revolving credit	200

Chapter 7

THE ACTIVITIES OF THE ISLAMIC BANK IN FINANCIAL STATEMENT	203
1. Financial statements of the Islamic bank and the relevant regulations	206
2. The structure and content of the Islamic Bank’s Balance sheet	206
3. Balance Sheet of an Islamic bank	207
3.1. Assets on the balance sheet	208
3.2. Liabilities on the balance sheet	210
3.3. Assets attributable to holders of unrestricted investment accounts	211
3.4. Equity	213
3.5. Off-balance-sheet items	215
4. Income statement of an Islamic bank	216
4.1. The structure and the content	216
4.2. Revenues	219
4.3. Costs and other charges	219
4.4. The result of non-tied investment accounts	222
4.5. Net income	222
5. Cash Flow statement	222
6. Statement of changes in restricted investment accounts	227
7. The statement of resources and uses of zakat funds and charitable funds	229
8. Overview of resources and uses of the loan fund (qard fund)	229

Chapter 8

TAKAFUL	231
1. The origins of Islamic insurance	231
2. Takaful evolution	232

	pag.
3. Differences between Takaful and traditional insurance	235
4. Takaful operations: a general classification	236
5. The contracts underlying Takaful	241
5.1. Contract between participants: Tabarru'	242
5.2. Contracts between participants and Takaful operators	243
6. Takaful models	244
6.1. Mudaraba model	244
6.2. Wakala model	247
6.3. Hybrid model of Wakala and Mudaraba	253
6.4. Hybrid model of Wakala and Waqf	255
7. Re-Takaful	261
8. Conclusion	263
 Chapter 9
CONCLUSIONS	265
 Glossary of terms used in Islamic finance	 269
 References	 273